So instead, stay home. Play a fun card game with your family. You might even find out that they aren't as annoying as you think. Just kidding. They're annoying as fuck aren't they? You still love them though. Show them.

ANOTHER WAY TO SHOW LOVE
TO YOUR FAMILY MEMBERS
IS TO GIVE THEM HAIRCUTS!
ASK THEM FIRST WHETHER THEY WANT TO HAVE THEIR
HAIR CUT AT ALL. IF THEY SAY
YES, THEN GREAT! HONESTLY,
DON'T EVER WORRY ABOUT
MESSING UP BECAUSE HON-ESTLY... WE'RE GONNA BE IN QUARANTINE FOR QUITE A WHILE LONGER. NOBODY WILL
SEE THEIR BAD CUT ANYWAY.
NOW, IF THEY SAY THEY DON'T WANT A HAIRCUT, THEN WAIT UNTIL THEY'RE ASLEEP AND
THEN TAKE YOUR SCISSORS
AND DO YOUR MAGIC. AGAIN,
WE'RE IN QUARANTINE, SO
AND MESSED UP HAIR IS AC-
TUAIIY TOTAIYY FINE. THEY'II
LOVE THE SURPRISE WHEN THEY WAKE UP!

At this point you might be bored again. What should you do? Should you go to your local coffee shop and get yourself an oatmilk latte? No! Stop! Do not move! I have already told you so many times how important it is to stay inside! Instead, go to your fridge and get a fresh, cold, Coca-Cola and open happiness! Coke is the perfect drink for quarantine because it is the epitome of America: junk food and consumerism. Mhm, yummy. Crack that bottle open and taste the freedom!

By now the people whose hair you cut should be awake and praise your magnificent hair-stylist skills. Of course, nobody can see the back of their own head, so they ask you to take a picture and show them. You oblige and...wait a minute...why do you have so many pictures? Were you so bored that you invited people over to your house? Yes?!?! Oh my goodness. When I said don't go outside I didn't mean bring people from outside into your home! I will admit though... you did a pretty good job with the haircuts. Can I schedule an appointment after quarantine?

This zine has gone in a couple of different directions since when I first started it. I first wanted to mimic some images and brands that I love and somehow apply in a way to spread a message about how we should be acting in quarantine. Then, I wanted to add a little bit of humor to the zine. I would have continued that theme all the way through but in recent days it is hard to look at the situation on the United states with any humor. We are reminded of our painfully incompetent president and his administration. People are dying whose deaths could have been prevented. Our economy has crumbled. White Americans are storming state capitals with no punishment. Black communities suffer the highest death rates in the country. White Americans are handed masks by police officers in the West Village as Black Americans uptown are being apprehended and beaten by cops for breaking social distancing. This virus is shedding light on all of the flaws that plague our country to this day. The worst part is how little we can really do. All I can say now is:

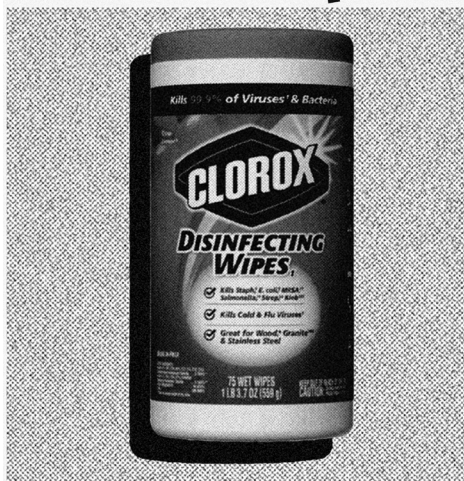

Dear Americans,

Please don't be stupid. Remember, You don't have to be Stupid to be American. Stock up on essentials and stay home!

Sincerely,

Everybody

You don't have to be Stupid

to be American

Stock up on your essential supplies and stay inside!

You don't have

I'M WATCHING YOU...
STAY HOME!
